PRICE THREE CENTS

ALL BRITONS ARE EXCITED

OVER THE RESIGNATION OF CABINET OFFICERS

Pall Mall Gazette Describes the Present Crisis as the Most Extraordinary in the History of the Government.

London, Sept. 12.—Excitement caused by the dramatic announcement of Chamberlain's resignation of the secretaryship for colonies prevails among all classes of the United Kingdom, to the exclusion of every other topic. A great majority of the public only learned the news from morning papers and astonishment in many cases was so great as to prevent expressions of any coherent opinion. The Pall Mall Gazette this afternoon aptly sums up the general feeling by describing the present crisis as "the most extraordinary in the whole history of the constitutional government." And what will happen next, no one can forecast with any degree of absolute certainty. The Pall Mall Gazette states Premier Balfour will fill up vacancies and carry on the government until he meets parliament in 1904.

Chamberlain also does not look for an immediate general election, expecting at least a twelve months propaganda before an electorate can decide upon his proposals. Other rumors are current that Balfour is unable to find men to fill the vacancies and he will be obliged to hand the king his own resignation. This, however, does not appear likely.

The Westminster Gazette and other papers forecast Lord Milner, high commissioner in South Africa, will succeed to the colonial office, and it is definitely announced Lord Stanley, financial secretary to the war office, will be among those promoted to the cabinet, but details of its reconstruction will not likely be known until Balfour has seen the king. Almost every paper has its own candidate for various vacant offices, but few prophecies coincide. The attitude of Duke Devonshire, lord president of the council, being unknown to the public, creates further uncertainty. Lord Rothschild's statement yesterday to the Associated Press, however, can safely be taken as an indication the duke intends to support Balfour, at any rate until parliament meets. The prediction were markets will not be affected by the cabinet crisis was fulfilled, indeed consoled exhibited a firmer tone to day.

The Associated Press learns there is good reason to believe the report of War Secretary Broderick will be transferred to the India office is correct. The new cabinet is expected to meet within a fortnight.

STATEMENT BY CHAMBERLAIN.

London, Sept. 12.—Writing to day from his home at Highbury, Birmingham, Chamberlain made his first public statement since his resignation. His letter is in reply to one from C. A. Pearson, chairman of the executive council of the Tariff Reform league, who asked if Chamberlain coincides with his view that the abrogation of tariff may be considered as sufficiently advanced, and that the league should now use its resources to advocate employment of the empire and defending the industries of the United Kingdom. Chamberlain replies affirmatively and gives his understanding of the position of the Tariff Reform league under two heads as coinciding with his position. Their objects he says are: "First, a closer union to endeavor to make the empire self-supporting as regards its food supply; second, employment of tariff as a weapon to secure greater reciprocity with foreign nations; or failing in such arrangement with protected countries by retaliating upon them the treatment they met out to us."

SPECULATIONS.

London, Sept. 12.—Newspapers this (Saturday) morning are crammed with discussions and speculations regarding the political situation brought about by the cabinet resignations, but no fresh developments have yet been announced. Both political parties have already commenced active preparations for the coming campaign and the opinion is sought of every man of prominence at home and in the colonies whose ideas are likely to have influence. The opinion of the colonies is anxiously canvassed as being the most important factor in the situation. Sir Edmund Barton, premier of the Australian commonwealth, has declared in an interview that he is convinced Chamberlain will ultimately triumph and that till that triumph is achieved there will be no real union of the empire.

WAS THROUGH SEWER.

Davenport, Iowa, Sept. 12.—Benny Sampson, 14 years old, was swept for nearly 100 yards through a sewer by Wednesday's storm. He passed into the Mississippi river and lives to tell the tale. A creek near his house runs through a culvert under Front street and the levee, and a heavy rainstorm turned the drain into a torrent. Benny fell into it, and before the horrified onlookers could interfere he disappeared in the sewer. People who saw him vanish ran to the river bank, and when his body shot to the surface at the outlet of the sewer he was rescued with the aid of a skiff.

JOSEPH CHAMBERLAIN

Has Been Invited to Come to Chicago and Deliver His Views.

Chicago, Sept. 12.—The first notable public address by Joseph Chamberlain, following his resignation from the British cabinet may be given international character, as Chamberlain is coming to Chicago to deliver his views as guest of the people of the United States. An invitation to him to do so has been forwarded through the department of state at Washington from the Illinois Manufacturers' association. A reply is being eagerly awaiting to the following cable message forwarded to night:

"We earnestly hope your freedom from public duties will assure your acceptance of an invitation of the Illinois Manufacturers' association."

The original invitation, which was forwarded through the state department, was extended July 24 last.

AIRSHIP MAKES TRIP.

London, Sept. 12.—Stanley Spencer, the aeronaut, left the Crystal Palace at 5 o'clock yesterday evening on his proposed airship trip around St. Paul's cathedral. After maneuvering for some minutes Spencer headed for the cathedral, which he reached at 5:30. At a considerable height above St. Paul's, Spencer made a half circuit and started home toward against the wind. At 6:10 p. m. a strong wind current from the south drove the airship northward, and it was apparently making no headway when lost to view over the North London suburbs.

BURNED TO DEATH.

Mother and Child Lose Their Lives in a Fire—Another Child May Die.

St. Louis, Sept. 12.—Mrs. Mary E. Jahn and 13 year old daughter, Pearl, died to day from burns caused by lighted gasoline and Harry, 10 year old son, cannot live. The boy had been in the habit of helping his mother about the stove during the day. He was a somnambulist and last night went through the operation of turning on and lighting the stove in his sleep. A fire resulted.

BEAVERS TRIAL

New York, Sept. 12.—At the examination of George W. Beavers, resumed to day, Commissioner Hitchcock announced he decided to overrule the motion made by the defense at the previous hearing to dismiss the proceedings because of invalidity of the indictment; also repeated his ruling that a properly certified copy of the indictment returned in Brooklyn was sufficient evidence to make out a case of probable cause and warrant return of the accused, properly identified, to the district wherein the indictment was returned.

BACK TO OYSTER BAY.

New York, Sept. 12.—The president, Governor Murphy, of New Jersey, and party reached Jersey City this morning at six on the return journey from the field of Antietam, where New Jersey yesterday unveiled a monument to its dead. The trip was without incident. At seven the president was taken to navy yard by a tug and thence he proceeded to Oyster Bay on board the yacht Sylph.

Oyster Bay, Sept. 12.—Roosevelt's party arrived here on the yacht Sylph at 10:30 o'clock.

DAMAGING FLOODS.

LaCrosse, Wis., Sept. 12.—The worst flood this portion of the Mississippi valley has experienced in years is submerging thousands of acres of farm lands along the river, sweeping away stacks of hay and grain in fields, and doing incalculable damage. The flood has reached LaCrosse and in the lower side fifty families were forced to move out of homes. The river is still rising half an inch an hour. At noon to day it was half a foot above the danger point. Communication with rural districts is entirely cut off, bridges being washed out.

FIND FORTUNE UNDER CARPET.

Terre Haute, Ind., Sept. 12.—James Gaines, of Edgar county, Ill., found $12,000 in money and notes under the carpets in his house two weeks after the death of his wife, who managed a 320-acre farm, some of the money being fractional currency of civil war times.

RIVER CONVENTION.

Quincy, Ill., Sept. 12.—Secretary Lewis B. Boswell, of the Upper Mississippi River Improvement association, to day issued a call for the second annual convention of the association to be held at Davenport, Iowa, Oct. 21 and 22. Each river city and each commercial or trade organization is entitled to three delegates.

STEAM ENGINEERS.

Wheeling, W. Va., Sept. 12.—The International Association of Steam Engineers to day refused a charter to the United German Engineers of New York city, directing them to affiliate with a labor union. An effort to double the monthly per capita tax was defeated. Also a resolution to establish a burial fund.

A FAVORABLE VIEW TAKEN

OF OUTLOOK FOR FALL AND WINTER TRADE

Prospect for Average Crops Is Good and Nothing in the Nature of Shortage Is Indicated—Trade Reviews.

New York, Sept. 12.—Bradstreet says: Conditions still display irregularity, but except where crop and weather developments have been distinctly unfavorable the tendency is still to take a favorable view of the general outlook for fall and winter trade. Heavy rains and killing frost northwest and in portions of the west, with drought followed by unseasonably cool weather and destructive wind and rain storms along the Atlantic coast, have tended to retard expansion in fall trade in wide sections of the country. All sections, however, have not been affected alike, the northwest returning relatively the poorest reports as to current distributive trade. The outlook for average is still good. Nothing in the nature of actual shortages, such as occurred in 1901, is indicated and while the trade opinion probably inclines to the view the boom is over in several industries, none-theless the belief is maintained that good average fall and winter trade is in prospect. A feature of the week in New England has been resumption of a large number of cotton mills. Shoe manufacturing in New England is active and a large sale of leather is reported at Boston. New buying of pig iron has been of fair volume, but prices have failed to harden. Pittsburgh reports a better tone in iron, with orders for finished products coming in more freely. Tin plate mills are crowded with orders.

Wheat, including flour, exports for the week, 1,903,000 bushels, against 5,435,000 this week last year; for eleven weeks of cereal year an aggregate of 31,164,000 bushels, against 53,332,000 in 1902.

DUN'S REPORT.

Dun says: Business has made moderate progress during the past week despite unusual opposition from the elements. When all other industries are to a considerable degree dependent upon agricultural conditions, reports of serious injury to crops by cold, wet weather are not calculated to stimulate confidence. Subsequent corrections indicated the amount of damage exaggerated as usual and prospects brightened. Car shortage is beginning to be felt, especially in the Pittsburgh district, where sufficient labor cannot be secured for handling freight. Manufacturing plants are well occupied as a rule, even textile mills reporting less idle machinery and at Chicago there is notable pressure for implements and hardware. Lumber is in better demand as structural activity revives. Payments are seasonably prompt, except where late crop delivery for settlements and the outlook for fall and winter business contains much that is encouraging. Railway earnings thus far reported for September show an average gain of 10.35 over last year. Sales of pig iron are small, but it is somewhat significant that prechases are usually urgent for quick delivery. Agricultural and structural steel ships are moving freely with several new contracts about to be placed. Textile mills are rather more fully employed. Irregularity continues in woollens with especial dissatisfaction over the condition of worsteds for men's wear.

Failures this week 219 in the United States, against 199 last year.

GUEST OF YACHT CLUB

Oyster Bay, Sept. 12.—President Roosevelt was the guest of honor to night at the annual dinner of the Seawanhaka Corinthian Yacht club. While many men prominently identified with yachting in the east were present and the dinner was a handsome and delightful affair, as a function it was not so elaborate as the committee originally had planned. The president gave the club to understand he could not attend the dinner if it was to be made a great banquet with many invited guests outside of club membership. An invitation was sent Sir Thomas Lipton, but he was unable to accept on account of illness and because of his engagements in the west.

The president made a brief speech, in which he spoke of the recent races for America's cup, concluding with proposing the health of Sir Thomas Lipton. At the mention of Lipton's name the guests rose and cheered enthusiastically and the toast was drunk with equal spirit.

CONDITION OF FAILED BANKS.

LaGrange, Ind., Sept. 12.—Examination of affairs of the Topeka and LaGrange banks that closed their doors a few days ago, shows assets $246,332.74; liabilities, $312,514.17.

WARRANT FOR A PRIEST.

Alma, Nev., Sept. 12.—Judge Adams to day issued a bench warrant for Rev. L. J. Harrington for contempt of court. This is the result of a bitter fight between Bishop Bonannum and Harrington over possession of the church at Orland, Neb.

AFTER MONEY

Pennsylvania Bank Offering Five Per Cent Interest on Savings

Pittsburg, Sept. 12.—Considerable interest was created among Pittsburg bankers to day by the announcement the Second National bank of Connellsville, Pa., one of the strongest institutions in the coke regions, had decided hereafter to pay 5 per cent interest on saving accounts. The purpose of officials is to induce those who are hoarding wealth at home to place the money in banks. The unusual demand for money inspired the launching of the new plan. It is claimed the action of the Connellsville bank in paying 5 per cent is the first taken since the rebellion by any banking institution of the United States. Pittsburg bankers do not fear any disturbance of money conditions as the result of increased rate.

THE PANAMA CANAL

Washington, Sept. 12.—Only four days remain within which ratifications of the Panama canal treaty must be exchanged. Dr. Herran, Colombian charge, transmits promptly to the state department such details of proceedings of the Colombian congress as come to him, but what their nature it he declines to reveal. He realizes the seriousness of the situation, but has not had any instructions to request extension of the time for ratification, nor has the American government intimated so far as known that it is anxious to grant it. It is believed in some quarters the real stumbling block is Colombia's demand the canal company give up a portion of the forty million to be paid for its property.

CHALLENGED SENATOR HANNA.

Norwalk, Ohio, Sept. 12.—John H. Clarke, Democratic candidate for United States senator in a speech to day formally challenged Senator Hanna to meet him in joint debate on issues of the campaign.

Columbus, Sept. 12.—When Senator Hanna was seen to night in regard to Clarke's challenge, he referred the interviewer to Chairman Dick, who was present. Dick said that if a formal challenge will come through the chairman of the Democratic state committee he will take cognizance of it and reply as the occasion may warrant.

OFFICER ENDED LIFE.

Leavenworth, Kan., Sept. 12.—Lieut. Laney M. Mitchell, Second Infantry, committed suicide by shooting in his quarters at Fort Leavenworth last night. Before killing himself he made out a check payable to his wife for the amount he had in bank and pinned this to a money order received from Manila and addressed to Mrs. Mitchell. He did not leave any statement giving his reason for suicide.

Lieutenant Mitchell married Miss Grace White, of Guthrie, Okla., Aug. 24, and they came to Fort Leavenworth from their bridal trip last week. His parents live in Preston, Mo. He was a soldier in the Twentieth regiment and distinguished himself in the Philippine campaign.

DIFFERENCES SETTLED.

Kansas City, Sept. 12.—The differences between the coal operators and miners of Voinager, Mo., were settled to night. At the suggestion of President Mitchell the differences were referred to a committee of operators and miners. The report of this committee, was accepted by the convention.

BANK CLEARINGS.

New York, Sept. 12.—The statement compiled by Bradstreet shows the total bank clearings of the principal cities of the United States for the week, $1,821,021,635; a decrease of 2.1 per cent, compared with the corresponding week last year.

JEALOUS LOVER'S CRIME.

Albia, Iowa, Sept. 12.—William Scott, a jealous suitor, shot Ada Harvey and her companion, William Truehart, while returning from a ball at Buxton last night. Truehart was slightly wounded, but the woman cannot recover. Scott has not yet been arrested.

BANKRUPT PETITION.

Chicago, Sept. 12.—A petition has been filed to have James S. Watson declared a bankrupt. Watson was president of Porter Bros. company, which failed several months ago. His liabilities are placed at $1,000,000.

LIPTON'S CONDITION.

Chicago, Sept. 12.—The condition of Sir Thomas Lipton was such to night that it is believed all danger has passed, though doctors say it will be several days before they will be able to make that statement with entire confidence.

LAND IS NON-MINERAL.

Wallace, Idaho, Sept. 12.—Commissioner General of Land Office Richards has decided an immense area of alleged mineral land in Shoshone county is non-mineral. If the decision is not revoked the Northern Pacific Railroad company will get every odd numbered section land involved and persons owning mining claims thereon will be compelled to purchase them from the railroad or forfeit their rights. Twenty-seven townships are affected by the decision.

THOUSANDS MASSACRED

A TERRIBLE SLAUGHTER OF BULGARIANS

Entire Population of Kastoria, Estimated at 10,000, Put to Death by Turks—Cotton Reports Beirut Quiet.

Sofia, Sept. 12.—Further report from Kastoria say the city is burning. The massacre of the population, estimated at 10,000 persons, is indescribably terrible. Turks slaughtered indiscriminately Bulgarians and Greeks, men, women and children.

A Turkish war balloon was reported seen hovering the last three days close to the Bulgarian frontier in the vicinity of Haskevo. A severe fight occurred at Ellatz, mountains of Kratovo, between 2,000 Turks and eighty insurgents. It continued eight hours. The insurgents used bombs with deadly effect. About 100 Turks were reported killed and many wounded. The insurgents had two men killed. A fight is also reported at Ruppel near Berez. Insurgent bands surrounded and annihilated a whole company of Turks and then fled to the mountains. Three battalions of Turkish troops were sent from Salonica to pursue them. A small body of peasant refugees near Presha, who were starving in the mountains, started to seek food. At Nakalez they were met by Turkish soldiers who killed them all and horribly mutilated the women.

WORD FROM COTTON.

Washington, Sept. 12.—The following was posted at the navy department to day:

"Admiral Cotton cables from Beirut, the 17th: Beirut quiet; nothing of importance occurred since Saturday. Some definite news about the case of vice consul is expected soon."

BULGARIANS KILLED.

Salonica, Sept. 12.—Three hundred Bulgarians were killed in a fight between insurgents and Turkish troops between Okrida and Dibra. The Bulgarian dead included many officers, one of whom wore a Russian decoration. A battalion of Redits attacked Christian gendarmes at Mitrovitzia, Sept. 16, and several of the latter were killed and wounded. The rest of the gendarmes took refuge at the Russian consulate, where they are besieged. The situation at Mitrovitzia is extremely critical.

OPTIMISTIC TONE.

Sofia, Sept. 12.—A distinctly optimistic tone now prevades government and diplomatic circles here and hopes are again expressed that war may after all be averted. From London and Constantinople encouraging news has been received. From London it is reported the British government will send a fleet to Turkish waters, while reports from Constantinople state that France and Italy have interfered to prevent continuance of massacres in Macedonia. The diplomatic corps appears to be relieved that Turkey has taken the news of Bulgaria's mobilization steps much more quietly than was anticipated. At the present moment the whole situation is regarded as being distinctly better than at any time for some weeks past.

TERRIBLE STORIES.

London, Sept. 12.—A dispatch from Samakov to the times says refugees arriving there bring terrible stories of rapine and devastation and report that no foreigner or unofficial is allowed to make an independent investigation or go anywhere out of sight of Turkish forces. The situation in the Balkans undoubtedly occupies to some extent the imperial meeting at Vienna. German Chancellor von Buelow had a long conference with the Austro-Hungarian premier to day. At the Bulgarian agency in Vienna it was declared that under any circumstances Bulgaria would await the result of the meeting between Emperor Francis Joseph and the czar before taking any decisive steps. Inquiries made by the Associated Press regarding the massacre at Kastoria tend to show the number of killed greatly exaggerated.

The Mail's Monastir correspondent says Turks burned eighteen children to death in a bake oven at Ploeder Sept. 12; 200 women and children at Jervan; killed fifty women and children returning from the mountains to their devastated homes; destroyed four villages near Krushevo, massacring and mutilating the inhabitants.

METAL WORKERS ON STRIKE.

Berlin, Sept. 12.—Ten thousand metal workers of Berlin have gone on a strike.

MURDERED AND ROBBED.

Chicago, Sept. 12.—Lying face downward in a pool of blood with her skull crushed the body of Mrs. Mary Spilka, aged 49, was found to night in the attic of her home. Several feet from the body police found a blood stained cobblestone. Robbery was the motive and more than $200, representing the savings of many years, was taken. Late to night the police arrested Lewis Pesant, a neighbor of the Spilka family. He denies all knowledge of the crime.

LITTLE DAMAGE

Done By Frost Thursday Night—Only Light Vegetation Injured.

Chicago, Sept. 12.—At seven this morning a heavy frost prevailed here and in northern Illinois. The local temperature was 41. Considerable damage was done to corn. Reports from all sections of central Illinois show the corn crop escaped, only light vegetation being damaged and loss will be small. Advances from Omaha report no frost perceptible there, the temperature at seven being about 50. There was moderation over the state during the night and it is believed frost did not appear at any point. Warmer weather prevails in Iowa. Indications point all danger of a blighting frost is over. Weather conditions throughout Kansas and western Missouri are much the same as Wednesday night, except the thermometer does not register as low. Frosts occurred at several points, but not severe enough to kill.

Dubuque, Iowa, Sept. 12.—Dubuque county was visited with a light frost last night, the lowest temperature being 35. It is believed no damage was done corn, which is well along. West of here frost was more severe.

Freeport, Ill., Sept. 12.—A light frost all over this part of Illinois early this morning, but little damage was done.

Kansas City, Sept. 12.—The weather to night is clear and warm here and throughout Kansas and western Missouri. Danger to corn from frost is believed to be ended.

EMPERORS MEET

Vienna, Sept. 12.—Emperor William arrived here to day from Belye, Hungary. Emperor Francis Joseph, wearing the uniform of a German field marshal, met Emperor William at the railroad station. The German emperor wore the uniform of an Austrian cavalry general. He was accompanied by Chancellor von Buelow. The monarchs cordially kissed each other three times and then shook hands warmly. After inspection of the guard of honor the emperors drove through crowded and decorated streets to Hofburg and were accorded an enthusiastic reception all the way to the palace. The route was lined by troops.

At a state dinner at the palace to night Emperor Francis Joseph proposed the health of the German emperor and expressed his keen satisfaction at being able to greet his faithful friend and ally whose visit would surely impart greater strength to the bonds already firmly established between the two empires.

Emperor William, responding in similar terms to this toast, said he had witnessed with pleasure the march past of Austrian regiments, as the armies of Germany and Austria sanctify and strengthen the alliance existing between the two nations for the welfare and peace of Europe.

A TRAGEDY

Evansville, Ind., Sept. 12.—After fatally wounding Chief of Police euke and Police Captain Brennecke and seriously injuring Councilman Lutz, Detective Hutchens committed suicide. The shooting was the result of an old feud.

The shooting occurred at the fair grounds to night and was witnessed by a crowd of people. Heuke and Brennecke entered a tent where Hutchens was sitting. The latter immediately jumped up and without a word began firing, hitting both Heuke and Brennecke. Hutchens then shot Leutz and rushing out the tent shot himself. When Brennecke was shot he reeled backward and staggered along the side of the tent and fell. Without moving out of his tracks Hutchens sent another bullet after him, which struck him on the left arm. As Brennecke fell Heuke sprang toward Hutchens, who leveled his revolver and sent a bullet into his right breast. The chief staggered toward the rear of the tent and fell. A fourth shot fired either at him or Patrolman Crow who was in the tent, struck Leutz, who was sitting at a table a few feet from where the chief had fallen. It is believed the conviction this afternoon of William Tribbe, one of the men who took part in the riots of July 5 and 6, had something to do with the tragedy. Brennecke was one of the most active workers for the state and it is said his activity against the rioters increased Hutchens' animosity.

BOOKMAKERS INDICTED.

Chicago, Sept. 12.—Indictments were to day returned against thirty-three bookmakers doing business on local race tracks. The charge against them was made under the general law against gambling.

KILLED HIS SON.

Norwalk, Ohio, Sept. 12.—Samuel Thompson, aged 58, killed his son Larry, aged 55, this evening at their home south of this city. The son left his wife two years ago and this action so angered his father that he has been brooding over it since. The father secreted himself in the barn and when the son came home shot him. After making sure that his son was dead, he killed himself.

PROTEST TO SAN DOMINGO

WHAT THE UNITED STATES OBJECTS TO

Minister Powell Gives Reasons for Opposing Various Projects Being Considered by the Dominican Government.

San Domingo, Republic of San Domingo, Sept. 12.—United States Minister Powell has sent a strong protest to the Dominican government based on the following grounds:

"That the action of the Dominican government in sending to congress a project for establishing neutrality of Dominican waters and making certain ports free would (in view of the fact San Domingo is a neighboring state) not be accepted in a friendly spirit by the government of the United States."

"That the United States government would not allow the establishment of any coaling ports in Santo Domingo or cessation of any portion of Santo Domingo territory to any European power."

"That the United States will not permit any nation to make exclusive use of Dominican waters in time of peace, much less in time of war. Nor could the United States allow any portion of the Dominican territory to be classed as neutral nor permit any section of the country to conflict with concession granted to the Clyde line, according to which all vessels arriving from foreign ports are compelled to pay port dues, except Clyde steamers. The American protest has excited considerable comment. Powell, it is pointed out seems determined to have the rights of Americans respected by the government of Dominican."

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Rev. and Mrs. D. D. Holmes Celebrate the 55th Annual Mile Stone of Their Married Life's Journey.

Nothing affords the Journal greater pleasure than to record the annals of early days and to note due respect paid the noble pioneers who did so much to make this grand county and state what they are. In the history of old Morgan no name is more honored than that of Holmes, for it has been borne by men and women who have been a credit to the community in which they have lived and respected for their upright, useful lives. Friday the friends of Rev. and Mrs. D.
D. Holmes gathered at the family residence of the latter, five miles and a half southeast of Jacksonville, to celebrate the fifty-fifth wedding anniversary of the worthy couple who have lived here so long and have been of such force for good throughout their lives.

Daniel DeLoss Holmes was born within half a mile of the place on which he now lives, Feb. 28, 1826. His father was Peris A. Holmes, of Stonington, Conn., and his mother, Lois Sweet, of New York. In 1821 Peris Holmes decided to seek his fortune in the far west and started on a journey which then meant almost more than a trip around the world would be to day. Resolutely he went to work amid disheartening surroundings to make a home for himself, for he then had no family, and he succeeded with the blessing of Providence in carving a name and position among the persons who have honored the state by their presence. The Indians were then frequent callers and few white faces were to be seen. Among the early neighbors were relatives; also John Wing, Elder Barton Stone, George and Elijah Kirkman and others. In 1823 Rev. Jonathan Sweet, a true man of God, arrived from New York with his family, among whom were his sons, Peleg and Elder Joel Sweet and daughter Lois, and her sweet smiles and pleasant ways coupled with true worth won the heart of the young pioneer, who laid siege to her affections with success, their marriage following in the winter of Feb. 1826, a baby boy came to bless their home and they called him Daniel DeLoss.

One of the first acts of Rev. Jonathan Sweet was to prepare for the worship of the one true and only God and gathering about him a dozen faithful souls, assisted by Elder Aaron Smith, he proceeded to organize the Diamond Grove Baptist church, April 26, 1828. Mr. Holmes says he has heard of no other church in the county at that date and is certain there was none of any denomination at all near that vicinity. It was called Diamond Grove for the reason that the spot called by that name was the only tract of land with any prestige or reputation at that time and though it was several miles distant it served to give the title by which the infant church was christened.
Among the charter members were Royal Tefft, Eunice Tefft, Henry Robley, Eliza Robley, Henry Kenney, Dacey Kenney, Calvin Goodell, Martha Goodell, John Hill, Susannah Hill, Nancy Woolams, Margaret Dorrance.
The pastor, Rev. Jonathan Sweet, and his wife put in their letters at the same time.

The meeting to organize the church was held in the house of Henry Robley and the little band assembled in various places, residences and school houses, until the first church, built or logs, was erected about 1828, and it is safe to say the worship there was more acceptable to the Most High than the praises sounded from marble walls and gilded surroundings.

Mr. Holmes had only such school advantages as were afforded the children of those early days. His father had some teaching done by a pair instructor in the house and when he could be spared from work he attended the district school, which was conducted three months in the year. On winter he attended the public school of this city, where John Reid was one of his chums; one year he went to Illinois college, but always he has been a student, studying from the great books of both nature and revelation and living close to the Great Teacher.
He has acquired a priceless education of head and heart which many who have had collegiate and university advantages lack. It was in the old log school house that he first heard a Methodist preacher, Rev. Elijah Kirkman, one of the good men of those early days. At that time when there was to be a public school patrons were obliged to sign for the number of pupils they were to send and pay accordingly, whether the children attended or not, for the teacher had to be paid just the same, and the directors had to know what would be their dependence. One of the first teachers was an Irishman named Sheridan, a man who knew more of the rod than of books, but he didn't last long. A valued instructor was one named Simpson, uncle of the worthy freight agent of the Wabash railroad in this city. He afterward went to Kentucky, where he studied medicine and practiced the rest of his life. Mr. Holmes said he had special reason to remember another teacher named Thrasher, who died in the vicinity of Woodson some years ago. The instructor was a great deal and was eager to do all he could to gain her esteem. A niece of this young lady was a pupil at the school taught by Mr. Thrasher and attended by young Daniel, and one day in play he pushed her over and accidentally hurt her finger, whereupon the teacher set upon him and gave him an undeserved punishment, which he always felt was due more to the affection of the pedagogue had for the girl's aunt than anything else. He was also, for a while a pupil of the late Horace Spaulding, as was nearly every elderly person in the county.

During a revival meeting conducted by Elder Joel Sweet and Elder Thomas Taylor in 1837, young Daniel was truly converted and baptized and from that day forth for sixty-six years he has been an unflinching follower of the Blessed Master, whom he then promised to love and serve.
The good he has accomplished can only be known when the books on high are opened and read before all men: In 1844 a union Sunday school was organized and the first sessions were held in a church of the Christian denomination in that vicinity, but which has since ceased to exist. Though but 18 years of age, Daniel was made the superintendent and did his work so well that many yet arise and call him blessed. Feeling a call to preach the blessed gospel he was ordained the last Sunday of Sept., 1864, by Dr. Miner and Elder Hubbard, both of Springfield. The ceremony took place in Diamond Grove church, and since that time, almost forty years, he has been the faithful pastor of that organization; he has ministered to the sick and comforted the dying; he has counseled the young and assisted the old; he has seen many in infancy and been their friend through youth to maturity; he has married them and their children after them, and wept with them in sorrow, rejoiced with them in happiness and at all times has been a valued friend and adviser in things temporal and spiritual, and though all his life he has followed the occupation of a farmer, he has found time for his spiritual work.

Sept. 10, 1848, he was united in marriage to Miss Rosa P., daughter of Wm. C. Verry, and for fifty-five years, more than half a century, their home life has been such as is commended by the Master, whom both have so faithfully served. One daughter, Emma, was born to them and she is yet at home, the comfort and stay of her beloved parents in their declining years. The wife of Mrs. Holmes' brother passed away leaving a sweet little daughter ten days old and the father was committed to the loving care of Mr. and Mrs. Holmes, who were to her all that parents could be and were loved most ardently by their foster child, Rosa P. Verry, who later in life became the respected wife of John A. Reed, who sought his fortunes in Texas, near Miami, where he now lives. They were the parents of eight children, six of whom are living, and three of them with their mother are now welcome guests at the home in which the mother was so tenderly reared.

Mr. Holmes owns a good farm and it is a pleasant thought with him that he "owes no man anything, but to love one another" and many will most earnestly hope that his last days will truly be his best, for one who has done so much for others deserves the best that can be had in this world in return.

The gathering at the family residence Friday afternoon was truly a happy event. Friends were present from far and near and the good man and his excellent wife were the recipients of many tender congratulations and loving remembrances.

Though the roads were rather heavy about seventy-five guests were present and the occasion was one long to be remembered. There was a refreshing absence of restraint and conventionality and all were intent on paying their respects to the worthy couple whom they had come to honor and to enjoy a social time with each other. A short formal program was also carried out with great pleasure and satisfaction to all present. A hymn was sung and then F. M. Coard of this city, made an address to the bride and groom of fifty-five years ago. His remarks were eloquent and touching and blended with good will fervor and respect. He was heard with the closest attention throughout and his words were highly complimented by everyone present.

Mr. Holmes responded in a feeling manner, showing his hearty appreciation of the kind words and sentiments of the speaker and guests.
Miss Mabel Goltra, of this city sang a solo in a very finished and artistic manner, which much delighted all who had the pleasure of hearing it.
Robert Hemmrough, a long time neighbor, then expressed to Mr.
Holmes the thanks of the guests for the pleasure they had enjoyed. Delicious refreshments were then served and they showed that the good law-and her excellent daughters well understand how to attend to the culinary department, and all present were loud in their praises of the good thing offered. Every guest seemed desirous of expressing good will and kindly feeling toward the host and hostess, who are so well known and greatly honored by a large circle of friends and acquaintances. Late in the day all departed with the best wishes for the good people whom they had come to honor.

Among those present from a distance were: Mr. Holmes' two sisters Mrs. S. E. Serogin, of Lexington, Ky., and Mrs. H. A. Gillman, of Madison, Wis. In addition to a number from this city Mr. and Mrs. H. Verry and daughter, Miss Frances, H. H.
Verry and family, Charles Park and Mrs. A. A. Dikes, all of Waverly; Mrs. M. Ferguson and Mrs. M. Brand of Logan; Mrs. John Reed and three children, of Miami, Texas.

QUAINT FRENCH VILLAGE.

Quiet and Peaceful Place Half an Hour's Journey From Paris.

It seems hardly credible that not more than thirty minutes from all the noise and bustle of Paris there lies a village that is so quiet, so peaceful and so old fashioned that one would imagine oneself at least a hundred miles away from the gay capital. Here at this village, La Frette by name, and about fifteen minutes' walk from Cor-meilles, preparations for midday and evening repasts have to be made very early in the morning, for no such thing as a good shop is anywhere near, and the walk to Cormeilles is one which one considers twice before taking, for it is up steep and rough roads. So daily butcher, baker and greengrocer pass this quaint little place, and the villagers gather round the various tradesmen and make their purchases for the day. They also buy their clothes in this way and may often be seen trying on bonnets, dresses and boots in the middle of the street. From a scenic point of view all artists have agreed that there is no place to equal La Frette between Paris and Havre.
To the left of the village is the park of Maisons LaFitte, and facing the park is Sartrouville, while opposite lies the forest of St. Germain in all its green splendor. To the right is Herblay, quite an important place, whose church is visible for miles along the Seine. La Frette itself has the quaintest villagers possible. Many of them speak worse French than those of the Midi, and it is an event indeed when one takes a journey up to the capital. They are thriftest of the thrifty. Only a short time ago one of the peasants gave his daughter no less a sum than a quarter of a million of francs on her wedding day, and another is to receive the same amount on her approaching marriage. And yet this man, who must be worth 4,000,000 or 5,000,000 francs at least, lives in, a patched up old house and digs in the fields from early morning till late at night.—Exchange.

Bull Thigh's Trip.

A short time ago old Bull Thigh, a Cheyenne, was beaten almost to death by a white man. The man was arrested and taken to Helena for trial.
Bull Thigh was called as a witness. It was his first ride on the railroad. He said he wanted to be asleep as they went over the rivers and through the mountains (bridges and tunnels). At the hotel every one gave him a cigar, which he thought necessary from politeness to smoke, nearly doing him up.
In the dining room he would eat all the waiters brought until he was "much stretched."

In the morning he complained about being cold in the night. The interpreter went with him to his room and found the bed untouched. He had simply rolled up in his own blanket and slept under the bed on the floor.
The judge finally discharged the man who whipped him, but Bull Thigh thought it was all right and that taking him to Helena on the cars, the presents, food and good time, was to even up matters, and he was perfectly satisfied, and now he brags of the trip with gusto.—Sunset Magazine.

Trials of the Inventor.

The other day 700 trunks arrived on an ocean steamer, and every one was fascinated with a metal clasp, a sort of open and snap arrangement. A few years ago the inventor of that clasp was hawking it around the country and feeling miserable because no one had sense enough to buy it. Finally he obtruded himself upon a hardware man in Chicago. I think it was. The usual amount of cold water was being thrown upon the patent, and he was about to depart when the silent partner remarked: "That may be a useful thing. Come back here this afternoon, and we'll talk about it." The talk resulted in its sale outright for $300. The firm introduced it to the trade in gross lots, and the profits to date are $500, 000. The poor inventor!—New York Press.

Testing Shock of Concussion.

Some interesting experiments on the effect of concussion on living bodies have recently been made in the French navy. Some sheep were put in the Henri IV. at quarters, and one of the big guns was fired over them. They were stunned, but readily recovered.
The inference is that human life will also survive the effect of the blast.
Sheep were then put in a submarine, submerged, and torpedoes exploded near them. Neither the submarine nor the sheep were hurt. The boat was then brought to the surface, and sailors were substituted for the sheep.
These also survived the shock of torpedoes exploded near by, so that the idea of a submarine being destroyed by its own torpedo must in future be discounted.

The Salmon Industry.

At a single federal hatchery on the Pacific coast 20,000,000 salmon eggs have been taken from the early run, and it is expected that 80,000,000 will be the total for this year. The artificial raising of fish and the stocking of streams and lakes have been of incalculable benefit to this country already, and it is likely that this fruitful and beneficent work will be conducted on even a larger scale hereafter.

Certified Milk.

In order to secure certification of his milk by the milk commission of New York city a dairyman must have a clean cement floor stable, with white-washed walls and abundant windows.
Cows must be sponged and their tails scrubbed before each milking. White suits must be worn by attendants, bottles and utensils washed and filled bottles kept on ice and shipped only in refrigerator cars.

OWES HIS LIFE TO A NEIGH- BOR'S KINDNESS.

Mr. D. P. Daugherty, well known throughout Mercer and Sumner counties, W. Va., most likely owes his life to the kindness of a neighbor. He was almost hopelessly afflicted with diarrhoea; was attended by two physicians, who gave him little, if any, relief, when a neighbor, learning of his serious condition, brought him a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which cured him in less than twenty-four hours.

THE PROPER TREATMENT FOR A SPRAINED ANKLE.

As a rule a man will feel well satisfied if he can hobble around on crutches two or three weeks after spraining his ankle and it is usually two or three months before he has fully recovered. This is an unnecessary loss of time, for in many cases in which Chamberlain's Pain Balm has been promptly and freely applied a complete cure has been effected in less than one week's time and in some cases within three days. For sale by

A DESIRABLE LINE.

The Nickel Plate road, with its eastern connections—the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western and West Shore and Boston & Maine railroads —is considered by those who have patronized it as a most desirable line between Chicago and New York, Boston and other eastern points, and takes its place among the first class lines leading eastbound from Chicago.
It is operating three through first class trains, all daily, and equipped with modern improvements, for the convenience and comforts of the traveling public, and has succeeded, to a remarkable degree, in pleasing its patrons, growing in popularity every day. One of its attractive features and thoroughly appreciated by the traveling public, is its dining car service, meals being served on American club plan, ranging in price from 35c to $1; also service a la carte. Colored porters are in charge to look after the comfort of passengers in coaches, and especially to assist ladies traveling with children. No excess fare on any train on Nickel Plate road. All passenger trains arrive at and depart from the LaSalle street station, Chicago, the only passenger station in Chicago on the elevated loop. When going east, try the Nickel Plate road.

A NATURAL RESULT.

It is very reasonable to suppose if the foundation of a structure was removed that the building itself is bound to come down. This same principle can be applied to disease. Take remove the cause of sickness, and the illness leaves of itself. Dyspepsia, Indigestion, sickheadache and biliousness have their foundation in stomach disorders. Remove this weakness and the other symptoms are no more.
There is one cure for this that all called Dr. Gunn's Improved Liver Pills. They get right at the begin-cure by taking away the cause of it.

A big company in an enjoyable comedy drama, an operatic orchestra of ten pieces, a brass band in a novel street parade, all at -0, 20 and 30 cent prices, makes a magnet that will no doubt pack the Grand to the doors on Monday night, Sept. 21. "Uncle Josh Spruceby" makes his bow on that occasion and the jolly old New Englander will afford an evening of fun and amusement. The play is on the order of "Shore Acres" and "The Old Homestead," with many specialties and the sensational saw-mill scene is an exciting climax. "Uncle Josh" was always a welcome favorite at high prices and will be doubly so at the remarkably low ones at which he appears this season.
This is to inform the public that I wish the credit given my wife that has been given me.

meeting of the Business Men's association was held Friday night for the purpose of considering the matter of the Burlington extension from this city to Concord. Mr. W. E. Crane, representing the Burlington extension, stated that he had the authority from the road to proceed at once to secure the right of way and that this could be done at a reasonable cost by Jan. 1, 1904. There were a good many members of the association present and they were all impressed with the importance of the improvement for Jacksonville. A committee was appointed to assist in the work of securing the necessary land. This committee consists of George E. Doying, John A. Ayers, Charles A. Barnes, E. S. Greenleaf, M. F. Dunlap, F. E. matter is of such vital interest to Jacksonville that something should be done by this association to help get the land. As I have said before, the Burlington people do not ask anything be given them, but much prefer to pay fair prices for all they get.

A blue print was exhibited showing the proposed right of way, and the gentlemen examined it carefully. It was the unanimous opinion that the matter was of the greatest importance and that everything possible should be done to co-operate with the road in securing the right of way in order to insure the new road for Jacksonville. In order to give any assistance possible, in getting the right of way, the committee already mentioned was named to work with the representatives of the road.

This city now has an opportunity to secure a new railroad connection, which would be of immense business advantage for all time to come and the matter should interest every citizen. The nine miles of road between here and Concord would put the on a great system and would result in countless advantages. It is a time for immediate action, for the Burlington must build at once or else postpone the work indefinitely. As the road is more than willing to pay fair damages for all the land they cross, it certainly seems with the co-operation of business men and all citizens that there should be little trouble in getting the options on the land desired. The city should not be indifferent in this affair, and an earnest effort should be put forward to clinch the improvement while it is possible.

DELEGATES ELECTED

Methodist Conference Chose Ministerial and Lay Representatives to the General Conference.

At 8 o'clock Friday morning the devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. J. T. Orr.

Bishop Fowler presided during the conference session following, where the important business of the entire conference session was commenced; the balloting for delegates to the general conference. These were appointed tellers: Frank McCarty, W. N. Tobie, F. W. Moore, J. W. Davidson, J. R. Van Felt, Theodore Kemp, J. V. Kirkpatrick and C. W. Jacobs.

The first ballot was then taken and the tellers retired. The delegates each voted on eight names. The report of the tellers were received just before adjournment at noon. Their report was as follows:

Ministerial delegates to general conference in Los Angeles next May:

Rev. W. T. Beadles, of Quincy, presiding elder of the district.

Rev. W. H. Wilder, of Champaign.

Rev. Robert Stephens, of Danville.

Rev. Chris Galeener, of Kimber church, Danville.

Rev. Parker Shields, of the Vermont Street church of Quincy.

Lay delegates elected to general conference at Los Angeles next May:

Leslie J. Owen, of Bloomington district.

Dr. J. R. Harker, of Jacksonville district.

E. G. Coon, of Champaign district.

George W. Miller, of Mattoon district.

W. T. Dwire, of Quincy district.

Wm. H. Anderson, of Springfield district.

Mrs. Mattie Yates McMahan, of West Jacksonville district.

Thursday night a great audience crowded the church and lined the wall and brought in chairs and crowded the altar railing and filled the galleries to listen to the address of Rev. Dr. Matt S. Hugs on "The Fine Art of Living." This was the anniversary of the Epworth league and was presided over by the president of the Illinois Conference league, Rev. J. P. Edgar, of Lovington.

The song quartet of the Illinois conference appeared during the service and gave several of their sweet selections and were heartily enjoyed. Those composing the quartet are W. M. Rigg, J. W. Waltz, S. C. Pierce, H. L. Murray.

Dr. Hugs is a spellbinder, a word painter; a pulpit orator par excellence. He has the fine appearance, the easy grace, the fine command of language, the grasp of subject and the wit which go to make up the best specimen of the modern American minister. He is a university man and pastor of the Independence Avenue church of Kansas City.

He brought his ideas within reach of all and his homely, humorous thrusts will be long remembered by all privileged to hear him.

Not the least interesting part of his lecture was his amusing description of his boy life and his loving homage to his little self-sacrificing Virginia mother.

He told of his early life in the little Virginia home at the close of the war. The people there were poor then and the ministers were poorer than the people and the Methodist ministers were the poorest of all. He never had a new suit of clothes until he had earned them by working from 5 o'clock in the morning till 10 at night for $6 a month. His mother used to manufacture his garments out of his father's old ones and usually made them four sizes too large so that his boyhood seemed like an endless struggle to grow into his clothes.

DR. HUGHS' EPIGRAMS.

It is a greater thing to have lived a love story than to have written a hundred.

It's a heap harder to live the Gospel than to preach it and a good deal better for the preacher.

Those who understand that the art of living is the greatest of all arts can't live an ordinary life.

In all the other arts we study the masters. In the art of living we study the Master.

The thing that makes the highest art is the suggestion of something higher than art.

It is a greater thing to be a madonna than to paint them.

And who will say that it isn't a greater thing to work in flesh and blood than on canvas.

What we want to understand is that there is something better than angelhood and that is redeemed manhood.

BASE BALL.

Barry vs. Jacksonville, Sunday, Sept. 20. Game called at 3.

MADE SLENDID SHOWING.

Rev. C. F. Baker, pastor of the West Jacksonville charge, has had a most successful year and took with him to the conference a very creditable report. The last quarterly conference was held Saturday, Sept. 12, with twenty members present. Reports showed the work of the various churches in good condition, salary of pastor and presiding elder paid in full with a balance in the treasury. Over $400 was raised during the year for benevolent purposes and the work done by the W. F. M. S. is deserving of especial mention, as they raised $11.

At the quarterly conference resolutions were adopted commending the work of Dr. W. F. Short, the presiding elder and requesting the return of the present pastor for another year, promising an increased salary. The work of the church is in good condition, and the charge has been progressing and prospering and people have worked in hearty co-operation.

Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Anderson Pleasantly Surprised on Their Silver Anniversary

Twenty-five years ago Friday Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Anderson were united in marriage, and a number of their friends, remembering the event, decided to surprise them last evening and help them properly celebrate the anniversary. They assembled and descended upon their unsuspecting hosts at about 8 o'clock and proceeded to make the evening a most enjoyable one. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, as soon as they had recovered from their surprise, extended a most cordial welcome and left nothing undone which might add to the pleasure of the event.

The guests came prepared with elegant refreshments and brought as a remembrance of the occasion a handsome silver candelabra, which will be much prized by Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, as a token of the esteem in which they are held by their friends. Altogether, it was a very happy event and one which will long be remembered by the participants.

C. P. & ST. L. WRECK

False Bridge Being Constructed—Passengers Transferred—All Trains Delayed.

The wreck on the C. P. & St. L. Thursday afternoon was one of the worst that has occurred on the system for sometime. It seems the engineer, Jacob Warner, who was killed, was twice warned of the danger ahead and at one time brought his train of nineteen cars to a standstill.

The train was moving at the rate of about five miles an hour when he finally tried to bring it a full stop, but found that he had exhausted all his surplus air in holding the train at a slow rate down the steep hill, and when he needed to apply more pressure it was lacking and the weight of the train back of the engine pushed it forward despite the efforts of the man at the throttle. The fireman and brakeman jumped and were uninjured and it will ever remain a mystery why the engineer did not do the same thing. Some advance the theory that he was transfixed by fear. The bridge was constructed of steel and made a tangled mass as the result of the accident.

The work of the wrecking crew was at first directed toward removing the engine, so that piles could be driven and a false bridge constructed.

Passengers were transferred all day yesterday, causing a delay of several hours in the regular running schedule of the Peoria-Springfield trains and the local accommodation was likewise delayed at Havana, where connection with the main line is made.

IRRIGATION CONGRESS.

Ogden, Sept. 18.—At to day's session of the National Irrigation congress El Paso was selected as the meeting place in 1904.

The congress appointed an executive committee, one from each state represented, among them: F. O. Tapping, Illinois; H. C. Wallace, Iowa; Thomas Shaw, Minnesota; D. E. Willard, North Dakota; J. A. Lightner, South Dakota; Clarke Capen, Wisconsin.

The convention adjourned after a platform was adopted which requested congress to make needed modifications in existing land laws in order that speculation and monopoly of the public domain be prevented.

TRAINS COLLIDE.

Crawfordsville, Ind., Sept. 18.—A Monon passenger train and Vandalla freight collided here this afternoon. The passenger train was passing a crossing when the freight crashed into it. Nine passengers were injured, none fatally.

A RIOT.

El Paso, Texas, Sept. 18.—At Chihuahua, Mexico, during the independence day celebration, Governor Terazas was hissed while making a speech. A riot followed. The mob stormed his palace and smashed every window. One policeman was beaten to death, many persons injured and much property damaged before soldiers, with fixed bayonets, dispersed the rioters.

CURED HEMORRAGES OF THE LUNGS.

"Several years since my lungs were so badly affected that I had many hemorrhages," writes A. M. Ake, of Wood, Ind. "I took treatment with several physicians without any benefit. I then started to take Foley's Honey and Tar and my lungs are now as sound as a bell. I recommend it in advanced cases of lung trouble." A. O. Overman, City drug store.

AT THE GRAND

A Crowded House Greeted the Rising Young Actress, Miss Brown.

Certainly with the Lillian Mortimer company "the third time is the charm," for the best play so far was staged last night and a full house enjoyed it. Miss Mortimer graciously conceded the leading part to Miss Brown, who as Zola St. Mar, a scheming gypsy, had fine opportunity to display the talents she possesses. The play is a strong one and deals with many tragic situations demanding ability of no common order for its presentation. The part assumed by Miss Brown was one requiring great force of character, perfect command of features and voice, while the style of acting was full of emotions of many kinds, and very difficult, but in all the young lady rose fully to the occasion and won hearty applause from first to last. Zola St. Mar and Samuel Barkrom scheme to ruin an innocent man and by insinuating themselves into his confidence gain access to his house and there lay a plot which brings him, an innocent man, to the gallows with the black cap placed over his head, when the truth is made known and the guilty ones are detected. It will readily be seen what versatility is required in the rendering of such a part and of Miss Brown it may be truly said that she had the ability. Her enunciation was clear and distinct and her reading faultless, while her portrayal of the varied emotions of the character she assumed showed her to possess a degree of ability rare in one so short a time on the stage. As a matter of course, Miss Mortimer was excellent in the part of Edris Dale, the wronged wife of John Remintrom; she is a lady of experience and wonderful ability in all kinds of parts. As John Remintrom, Norman R. Field was fine and St. George Dagele admirably portrayed the villain, Samuel Barkrom.

The humor of the piece was sustained by Wm. McRobie as Percy Clifford, in love with Sallie Dean, which was well done by Sally Drew. Dora Horn was fine in the gushing woman eager for a husband. In the construction of the play the changes from the tragic to the ridiculous are too sudden for good taste and two songs sung by McRobie would much better have been left out, for it is easy to make fun without using language with a questionable meaning. The singing and clog dancing between acts were good and as a whole the play gave good satisfaction. The special scenery was excellent and the train with the puffing locomotive wonderfully realistic.

This afternoon there will be a matinee and to night "Dice of Death" will be the bill.

SOCIALISTS BECOME VIOLENT.

Dresden, Saxony, Sept. 18.—The socialist congress this evening was the scene of violent altercations between various deputies interested in the election of the party's executive committee. For a full hour gross personalities were indulged in. Earlier in the day Herr von Voltmar spoke for four hours in reply to Bebel. The essence of his discourse was there was no crisis in the party, except a personal crisis, Bebel seeing with grief his leadership in parliament threatened.
